The faithful departed, those who died recently, and all those whose anniversaries occur this week.

Prayer for a new Parish Priest

Bishop Jeremy has given us the following prayer for a new parish priest. It will be used each Sunday mass, but you might like to use it in your own personal devotions:

Bountiful God, give to this parish a faithful pastor who will faithfully speak your word and minister your sacraments; an encourager who will equip your people for ministry and enable us to fulfil our calling. Give to those who will choose, wisdom, discernment and patience, and to us give us warm and generous hearts, for Jesus Christ's sake.

Amen

News...

Pastoral Care...

Should you require any Pastoral care or a visit, please contact:

Jim Gallagher M: 0417 904 704

Sandra Hughes P: 9384 1532

Pastoral care requests are treated with full confidentiality.

Prayer Chain...

For any Prayer requests, please contact Eileen on P: 9381 7798. Prayer chain requests are treated with full confidentiality.

Lent Donations...

The final date for collection will be Easter Sunday the 21 April. All donations will be given to St. Bartholomew House.

Maundy Thursday...

It is traditional for our priest to wash the feet of some of the Congregation at the Maundy Thursday Eucharist, in the same way that Jesus did at the Last Supper.

Please let Fr. Rowan know if you are able to undertake this ministry at that mass.

Help Wanted...

We very much need more parishioners to assist with two sorts of Sunday ministry – liturgical and non-liturgical. Non-liturgical ministry needs people as cash counters and welcomers. Liturgical ministry needs people as readers and intercessors. Would parishioners who feel they could assist with one or more of these ministries please see Jim Gallagher for the non-liturgical ones. Both ministries are vital for our Sunday worship and community life. Prospective readers and intercessors please see Fr Rowan. Once we have sufficient names we will hold a short training session of approximately an hour.

Reader's Easter Vigil...

Please let Ilona know if you would be able to read at the 5:30 a.m. Easter Vigil service. M: 0411 115 116 E: Ilona@enigma.id.au

Office Hours, April...

Jo will be away from the Office Wednesday 27th March till Friday 12 April. After this Jo will be in for one hour Monday, Wednesday and Friday until she is able to return to work fully. During this time Jo will be checking emails from home, so feel free to get in touch with her.

We will need volunteers to sit in the Office during April. Please let Ilona know if you can help.

Readings...

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

Thus says the Lord,
who makes a way in the sea,
a path in the mighty waters,
who brings out chariot and horse,
army and warrior;
they lie down, they cannot rise,
they are extinguished, quenched
like a wick:

Do not remember the former things, or consider the things of old.

I am about to do a new thing;

now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?

I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

The wild animals will honour me,
the jackals and the ostriches;

for I give water in the wilderness,
rivers in the desert,

to give drink to my chosen people,
the people whom I formed for myself so that they might declare my praise.

Isaiah 43:16-21

Hear the Word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 126

When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, then were we like those who dream.

Then was our mouth filled with laughter and our tongue with songs of joy.

Then said they among the nations,
'The Lord has done great things for them.'

The Lord has indeed done great things for us,
and therefore we rejoiced.

Restore again our fortunes, O Lord,
as the river beds of the desert.

Those who sow in tears
shall reap with songs of joy.

Those who go out weeping, bearing the seed,
will come back with shouts of joy,
bearing their sheaves with them.

Psalm 126

A Reading from The Letter to the Philippians

For it is we who are the circumcision, who worship in the Spirit of God and boast in Christ Jesus and have no confidence in the flesh— even though I, too, have reason for confidence in the flesh.

If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless.

Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith. I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on towards the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 3:3-14

Hear the Word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him. Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said, 'Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?' (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) Jesus said, 'Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me.'
