Garage Sale Trail...

The Parish is again participating in the Australia-wide Garage Sale Trail, which this year will be on Saturday 19 October. It has the potential to be a huge fundraiser for the Church, with all proceeds being donated to support our ongoing ministry.

The plan is for people to have their own stall and be responsible to take home any unsold goods. We are hoping that this will make it easier to organise, particularly packing up. Help will be available.

To register your interest in having a stall please put your name on the Garage Sale sign-up sheet by 8 September.

For any queries please see Alison, Ilona, Liza or Sandra.

Shenton Christian Youth Care Council...

Thank you Hilary for volunteering to be our representative on the Council.

Congratulations...

We rejoice with Eileen who last Saturday celebrated the 12th anniversary of her ordination as a Deacon. We give thanks for her Christian commitment, particularly on pastoral work in our Parish

Readings...

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah

Hear the word of the Lord, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel. Thus says the Lord:

What wrong did your ancestors find in me
that they went far from me,
and went after worthless things, and became worthless
themselves?

They did not say, 'Where is the Lord
who brought us up from the land of Egypt,
who led us in the wilderness,
in a land of deserts and pits,
in a land of drought and deep darkness,
in a land that no one passes through,
where no one lives?'

I brought you into a plentiful land
to eat its fruits and its good things.

But when you entered you defiled my land,
and made my heritage an abomination.

The priests did not say, 'Where is the Lord?'
Those who handle the law did not know me;
the rulers transgressed against me;
the prophets prophesied by Baal,
and went after things that do not profit.

Therefore once more I accuse you,
says the Lord,
and I accuse your children's children.
Cross to the coasts of Cyprus and look,
send to Kedar and examine with care;
see if there has ever been such a thing.

Has a nation changed its gods,
even though they are no gods?
But my people have changed their glory
for something that does not profit.
Be appalled, O heavens, at this,
be shocked, be utterly desolate,
says the Lord,
for my people have committed two evils:
they have forsaken me,
the fountain of living water,
and dug out cisterns for themselves,
cracked cisterns
that can hold no water.

Jeremiah 2:4-13

Hear the Word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 81

Sing merrily to God our strength,
shout for joy to the God of Jacob.

‘I am the Lord your God,
who brought you up from the land of Egypt;
open your mouth wide and I shall fill it.’

But my people would not hear my voice
and Israel would not obey me.

So I sent them away in the stubbornness of their hearts,
and let them walk after their own counsels.

O that my people would listen to me,
that Israel would walk in my ways!

Then I should soon put down their enemies
and turn my hand against their adversaries.

Those who hate the Lord would be humbled before him,
and their punishment would last for ever.

But Israel would I feed with the finest wheat
and with honey from the rock would I satisfy them.

Psalm 81:1, 10-16

A Reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

Let mutual love continue. Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it. Remember those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them; those who are being tortured, as though you yourselves were being tortured. Let marriage be held in honour by all, and let the marriage bed be kept undefiled; for God will judge fornicators and adulterers. Keep your lives free from the love of money, and be content with what you have; for he has said, 'I will never leave you or forsake you.' So we can say with confidence,

'The Lord is my helper;
I will not be afraid.
What can anyone do to me?'

Remember your leaders, those who spoke the word of God to you; consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and for ever.

Through him, then, let us continually offer a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name. Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

Hebrews 13:1-8, 15-16

Hear the Word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ According to Luke

On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the sabbath, they were watching him closely.

When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honour, he told them a parable. ‘When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honour, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host; and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, “Give this person your place”, and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place. But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, “Friend, move up higher”; then you will be honoured in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.’

He said also to the one who had invited him, ‘When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbours, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid. But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.’
