Save the Day...

Sunday 1 September – Father’s Day Stall

Saturday 19 October – Garage Sale Trail

Sunday 27 October – Talking Heads

Garage Sale Trail...

The Parish is again participating in the Australia-wide Garage Sale Trail, which this year will be on Saturday 19 October. It has the potential to be a huge fundraiser for the Church, with all proceeds being donated to support our ongoing ministry.

The plan is for people to have their own stall and be responsible to take home any unsold goods. We are hoping that this will make it easier to organise, particularly packing up. Help will be available.

To register your interest in having a stall please put your name on the Garage Sale sign-up sheet by 8 September.

For any queries please see Alison, Ilona, Liza or Sandra.

Parish Office...

The Parish Office will be closed August 10 to 17, as Jo recovers from her wrist surgery. If there is an emergent issue please contact the Wardens or Jo on 0421 314 369.

The Parish email will be checked daily.

Readings...

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

The vision of Isaiah son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

Hear the word of the Lord,
you rulers of Sodom!
Listen to the teaching of our God,
you people of Gomorrah!
What to me is the multitude of your sacrifices?
says the Lord;
I have had enough of burnt-offerings of rams
and the fat of fed beasts;
I do not delight in the blood of bulls,
or of lambs, or of goats.

When you come to appear before me,
who asked this from your hand?
Trample my courts no more;
bringing offerings is futile;
incense is an abomination to me.
New moon and sabbath and calling of convocation—

I cannot endure solemn assemblies with iniquity.
Your new moons and your appointed festivals
my soul hates;
they have become a burden to me,
I am weary of bearing them.
When you stretch out your hands,
I will hide my eyes from you;
even though you make many prayers,
I will not listen;
your hands are full of blood.
Wash yourselves; make yourselves clean;
remove the evil of your doings
from before my eyes;
cease to do evil,
learn to do good;
seek justice,
rescue the oppressed,
defend the orphan,
plead for the widow.

Come now, let us argue it out,
says the Lord:
though your sins are like scarlet,
they shall be like snow;
though they are red like crimson,
they shall become like wool.
If you are willing and obedient,
you shall eat the good of the land;
but if you refuse and rebel,
you shall be devoured by the sword;
for the mouth of the Lord has spoken.

Isaiah 1:1, 10-20

Hear the Word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 50

The Lord, the most mighty God, has spoken and called the world from the rising of the sun to its setting.

Out of Zion, perfect in beauty, God shines forth;
our God comes and will not keep silence.

Consuming fire goes out before him
and a mighty tempest stirs about him.

He calls the heaven above,
and the earth, that he may judge his people:

Gather to me my faithful,
who have sealed my covenant with sacrifice.'

Let the heavens declare his righteousness,
for God himself is judge.

Hear, O my people, and I will speak:
'I will testify against you, O Israel;
for I am God, your God.

'I will not reprove you for your sacrifices,
for your burnt offerings are always before me.

'You that forget God, consider this well,
lest I tear you apart and there is none to deliver you.

'Whoever offers me the sacrifice of thanksgiving honours me
and to those who keep my way
will I show the salvation of God.'

Psalm 50:1-8, 23-24

A Reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. Indeed, by faith our ancestors received approval. By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible.

By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to set out for a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; and he set out, not knowing where he was going. By faith he stayed for a time in the land he had been promised, as in a foreign land, living in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. For he looked forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God. By faith he received power of procreation, even though he was too old—and Sarah herself was barren—because he considered him faithful who had promised. Therefore from one person, and this one as good as dead, descendants were born, ‘as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore.’

All of these died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth, for people who speak in this way make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. If they had been thinking of the land that they had left behind, they would have had opportunity to return. But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; indeed, he has prepared a city for them.

Hebrews 11:1-3, 8-16

Hear the Word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ According to Luke

‘Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

‘Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit; be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks. Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them. If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves.

‘But know this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.’

Luke 12:32-40

The Gospel of the Lord: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

For your contemplation after Mass...

Most loving God, we thank you that in the holy mystery of this blessed sacrament you refresh and strengthen us with the body and blood of your dear Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. For the beauty of this worship, for the presence of Christ, for the memorial of his passion, for communion with your saints, for this heavenly food, for Christ in us the hope of glory, we praise and bless your holy name; asking you that we may so reverently treasure and diligently use the grace of each communion that we may grow in knowledge and love of you, and of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, in the power of your indwelling Spirit. Amen.
