Any items for sale can be delivered to the Church on Friday 18 October. Due to the Hall and Meeting room being used we cannot store them before this date.

There are two lists in the Narthex. One is for volunteers to help set up on Friday 18 October from 10 a.m. and to clean up on Saturday. The second list is for volunteers to help on Saturday between 8 a.m. and 12 p.m. on the stalls. The busiest time is from 8 a.m. when we would like the most help.

A Conversation Group...

Fr Rowan is initiating a Conversation Group for parishioners to share issues and insights of their faith with each other, over tea, coffee, or wine. The group will meet in his home, and for each meeting two parishioners will be asked to speak briefly about a particular insight or issue of Christian faith that is real for them in some way. The group will discuss each subject in turn for as long as there is energy to do so and, if necessary, the group will follow it up further by relevant reading, or even asking a resource person to address them at a future meeting. The meetings will be for two hours on a week day evening, at a frequency, day, and time to be decided at the first meeting. It will be open to any parishioners, and attendance by individuals can be as regular or irregular as they themselves want. The initial meeting of the Conversation Group will be on Wednesday 23 October at 7.30. Parishioners intending to attend this first meeting can get the address from Fr Rowan.

Office Hours – 1 October to 14 October...

Jo is back under the knife and will be on sick leave for two weeks. Email remains the best way to reach the Office, as this will still be checked regularly.

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah

These are the words of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the remaining elders among the exiles, and to the priests, the prophets, and all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon.

Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat what they produce. Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not decrease. But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare.

Jeremiah 29:1, 4-7

Hear the Word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 111

Alleluia. I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart, in the company of the faithful and in the congregation.

The works of the Lord are great,
sought out by all who delight in them.

His work is full of majesty and honour and his righteousness endures for ever.

He appointed a memorial for his marvellous deeds;
the Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

He gave food to those who feared him;
he is ever mindful of his covenant.

He showed his people the power of his works in giving them the heritage of the nations.

The works of his hands are truth and justice;
all his commandments are sure.

They stand fast for ever and ever;
they are done in truth and equity.

He sent redemption to his people;
he commanded his covenant for ever;
holy and awesome is his name.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom;
a good understanding have those who live by it;
his praise endures for ever.

Psalm 111

A Reading from the Second Letter to Timothy

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David—that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. The saying is sure:

If we have died with him, we will also live with him;
if we endure, we will also reign with him;
if we deny him, he will also deny us;
if we are faithless, he remains faithful—
for he cannot deny himself.

Remind them of this, and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening. Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth.

2 Timothy 2:8-15

Hear the Word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ According to Luke

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, 'Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!' When he saw them, he said to them, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, 'Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?' Then he said to him, 'Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.'

Luke 17:11-19

The Gospel of the Lord: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

For your contemplation...

Before and after Holy Communion

Eternal Father, look upon the presence of your dear Son whom we now present to you. Receive this holy sacrifice of his body and blood for your Holy Catholic Church throughout the world. Where it is corrupt purify it; where it is right, strengthen and defend it; where it is divided heal it, and bring all people into the one fold under the one shepherd, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.
