Sunday 27 October – Talking Heads

A Conversation Group...PLEASE NOTE CHANGE OF DATE! 30 October!

Fr Rowan is initiating a Conversation Group for parishioners to share issues and insights of their faith with each other, over tea, coffee, or wine. The group will meet in his home, and for each meeting two parishioners will be asked to speak briefly about a particular insight or issue of Christian faith that is real for them in some way. The group will discuss each subject in turn for as long as there is energy to do so and, if necessary, the group will follow it up further by relevant reading, or even asking a resource person to address them at a future meeting. The meetings will be for two hours on a week day evening, at a frequency, day, and time to be decided at the first meeting. It will be open to any parishioners, and attendance by individuals can be as regular or irregular as they themselves want. The initial meeting of the Conversation Group will be on Wednesday 30 October at 7.30 p.m. Parishioners intending to attend this first meeting can get the address from Fr Rowan.

Talking Heads 2...

Sunday 27 October, 2:30 p.m. For details about the performance, please see the flyer. There is a sign-up sheet in the Narthex.

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of humans and the seed of animals. And just as I have watched over them to pluck up and break down, to overthrow, destroy, and bring evil, so I will watch over them to build and to plant, says the Lord. In those days they shall no longer say:

‘The parents have eaten sour grapes,
and the children’s teeth are set on edge.’

But all shall die for their own sins; the teeth of everyone who eats sour grapes shall be set on edge.

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the Lord. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, ‘Know the Lord’, for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

Jeremiah 31:27-34

Psalm 119

Lord, how I love your law!
All the day long it is my study.

Your commandments have made me wiser than my enemies,
for they are ever with me.

I have more understanding than all my teachers,
for your testimonies are my meditation.

I am wiser than the aged,
because I keep your commandments.

I restrain my feet from every evil way,
that I may keep your word.

I have not turned aside from your judgements,
for you have been my teacher.

How sweet are your words on my tongue!
They are sweeter than honey to my mouth.

Through your commandments I get understanding;
therefore I hate all lying ways.

Psalm 119:97-104

A Reading from the Second Letter to Timothy

Now you have observed my teaching, my conduct, my aim in life, my faith, my patience, my love, my steadfastness, my persecutions, and my suffering the things that happened to me in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. What persecutions I endured! Yet the Lord rescued me from all of them. Indeed, all who want to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted. But wicked people and impostors will go from bad to worse, deceiving others and being deceived. But as for you, continue in what you have learned and firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it, and how from childhood you have known the sacred writings that are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that everyone who belongs to God may be proficient, equipped for every good work.

In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you: proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favourable or unfavourable; convince, rebuke, and encourage, with the utmost patience in teaching. For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound doctrine, but having itching ears, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths. As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

2 Timothy 3:10-4.5

The Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ According to Luke

Then Jesus told them a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart. He said, 'In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people. In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, "Grant me justice against my opponent." For a while he refused; but later he said to himself, "Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming.'" And the Lord said, 'Listen to what the unjust judge says. And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?'

He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: 'Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax-collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, "God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax-collector. I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income." But the tax-collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner!" I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted.'

Luke 18:1-14
