Prayer for a new Parish Priest

Bishop Jeremy has given us the following prayer for a new parish priest. It will be used each Sunday mass, but you might like to use it in your own personal devotions:

Bountiful God, give to this parish a faithful pastor who will faithfully speak your word and minister your sacraments; an encourager who will equip your people for ministry and enable us to fulfil our calling. Give to those who will choose, wisdom, discernment and patience, and to us give us warm and generous hearts, for Jesus Christ's sake.

Amen

News...

Pastoral Care...

Should you require any Pastoral care or a visit, please contact:

Jim Gallagher M: 0417 904 704

Sandra Hughes P: 9384 1532

Pastoral care requests are treated with full confidentiality.

Prayer Chain...

For any Prayer requests, please contact Eileen on P: 9381 7798. Prayer chain requests are treated with full confidentiality.

Lent Donations...

The final date for collection will be Easter Sunday the 21 April. All donations will be given to St. Bartholomew House.

Help Wanted...

We very much need more parishioners to assist with two sorts of Sunday ministry – liturgical and non-liturgical. Non-liturgical ministry needs people as cash counters and welcomers. Liturgical ministry needs people as readers and intercessors. Would parishioners who feel they could assist with one or more of these ministries please see Jim Gallagher for the non-liturgical ones. Both ministries are vital for our Sunday worship and community life. Prospective readers and intercessors please see Fr Rowan. Once we have sufficient names we will hold a short training session of approximately an hour.

Office Hours, April...

Jo will be away from the Office Wednesday 27th March till Friday 12 April. After this Jo will be in for one hour Monday, Wednesday and Friday until she is able to return to work fully. During this time Jo will be checking emails from home, so feel free to get in touch with her.

We will need volunteers to sit in the Office during April. Please let Ilona know if you can help.

Mother's Day Stall...

There will be a produce stall on Sunday 12 May. Donations will be very welcome.

Worm Wine Project...

The worm wine project started last year. The monies raised from sales were put into the collection plate.

Alison and I have sold $60 worth of wine this year.

It was decided to use the money to support Opportunity, a small loan scheme, developed in Australia, available to women and several countries world wide.

A very small amount of money is loaned to a participant, as little as $25.00. There is support in all aspects of running a business.

The money is reinvested once the loan is repaid. The small amount loaned makes a huge impact in underdeveloped countries.

Thank you for all your previous support. Margaret and Steve have been particularly successful in selling the worm wine to their friends and colleagues.

There are bottles of worm wine available from Alison and me. It is an excellent time to give your plants a pre winter boost after a long hot summer.

A $4.00 bottle of wine when distilled makes approx. 10 litres of liquid. The colour of weak tea is a good guide to use.

Thank you once again for your support.

Anne.

Readings...

A Reading from the Book of Acts

Then Peter began to speak to them: 'I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.'

Acts 10:34-43

Hear the Word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 118

O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
his mercy endures for ever.

Let Israel now proclaim,
'His mercy endures for ever.

The Lord is my strength and my song,
and he has become my salvation.

Joyful shouts of salvation
sound from the tents of the righteous:

'The right hand of the Lord does mighty deeds;
the right hand of the Lord raises up;
the right hand of the Lord does mighty deeds.'

I shall not die, but live and declare the works of the Lord.

The Lord has punished me sorely,
but he has not given me over to death.

Open to me the gates of righteousness,
that I may enter and give thanks to the Lord.

This is the gate of the Lord;
the righteous shall enter through it.

I will give thanks to you, for you have answered me
and have become my salvation.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.

This is the Lord's doing,
and it is marvellous in our eyes.

This is the day that the Lord has made;
we will rejoice and be glad in it.

Psalm 118:1-2, 14-2

A Reading from St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians

If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied.

But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have died. For since death came through a human being, the resurrection of the dead has also come through a human being; for as all die in Adam, so all will be made alive in Christ. But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ. Then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, after he has destroyed every ruler and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death.

1 Corinthians 15:19-26

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ According to John

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.' Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went towards the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes.

But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping?' She said to them, 'They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.' When she had said this, she turned round and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping? For whom are you looking?' Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, 'Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.' Jesus said to her, 'Mary!' She turned and said to him in Hebrew, 'Rabbouni!' (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, 'Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, "I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God."' Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, 'I have seen the Lord'; and she told them that he had said these things to her.
