Fr Rowan is initiating a Conversation Group for parishioners to share issues and insights of their faith with each other, over tea, coffee, or wine. The group will meet in his home, and for each meeting two parishioners will be asked to speak briefly about a particular insight or issue of Christian faith that is real for them in some way. The group will discuss each subject in turn for as long as there is energy to do so and, if necessary, the group will follow it up further by relevant reading, or even asking a resource person to address them at a future meeting. The meetings will be for two hours on a week day evening, at a frequency, day, and time to be decided at the first meeting. It will be open to any parishioners, and attendance by individuals can be as regular or irregular as they themselves want. The initial meeting of the Conversation Group will be on Wednesday 23 October at 7.30. Parishioners intending to attend this first meeting can get the address from Fr Rowan.

Readings...

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah

My joy is gone, grief is upon me, my heart is sick.

Hark, the cry of my poor people from far and wide in the land:

'Is the Lord not in Zion?

Is her King not in her?'

('Why have they provoked me to anger with their images, with their foreign idols?')

'The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.'

For the hurt of my poor people I am hurt,
I mourn, and dismay has taken hold of me.

Is there no balm in Gilead?

Is there no physician there?

Why then has the health of my poor people not been restored?

O that my head were a spring of water,
and my eyes a fountain of tears,

so that I might weep day and night
for the slain of my poor people!

Jeremiah 8:18-9:1

Hear the Word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 79

O God, the heathen have come into your heritage;
your holy temple have they defiled
and made Jerusalem a heap of stones.

The dead bodies of your servants they have given to be food for the birds of the air, and the flesh of your faithful to the beasts of the field.

Their blood have they shed like water
on every side of Jerusalem, and there was no one to bury them.

We have become the taunt of our neighbours,
the scorn and derision of those that are round about us.

Lord, how long will you be angry, for ever?
How long will your jealous fury blaze like fire?

Pour out your wrath upon the nations that have not known you,
and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon your name.

For they have devoured Jacob and laid waste his dwelling place.

Remember not against us our former sins;
let your compassion make haste to meet us,
for we are brought very low.

Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of your name;
deliver us, and wipe away our sins for your name's sake.

A Reading from the First Letter to Timothy

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings should be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God;

there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human,
who gave himself a ransom for all —this was attested at the right time. For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

I desire, then, that in every place the men should pray, lifting up holy hands without anger or argument; also that the women should dress themselves modestly and decently in suitable clothing, not with their hair braided, or with gold, pearls, or expensive clothes, but with good works, as is proper for women who profess reverence for God.

1 Timothy 2:1-10

Hear the Word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ According to Luke

Then Jesus said to the disciples, ‘There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property. So he summoned him and said to him, “What is this that I hear about you? Give me an account of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer.” Then the manager said to himself, “What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes.” So, summoning his master’s debtors one by one, he asked the first, “How much do you owe my master?” He answered, “A hundred jugs of olive oil.” He said to him, “Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty.” Then he asked another, “And how much do you owe?” He replied, “A hundred containers of wheat.” He said to him, “Take your bill and make it eighty.” And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes.

‘Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.’

Luke 16:1-13

The Gospel of the Lord: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ
