Garage Sale Trail...

The Parish is again participating in the Australia-wide Garage Sale Trail, which this year will be on Saturday 19 October. It has the potential to be a huge fundraiser for the Church, with all proceeds being donated to support our ongoing ministry.

The plan is for people to have their own stall and be responsible to take home any unsold goods. We are hoping that this will make it easier to organise, particularly packing up. Help will be available.

To register your interest in having a stall please put your name on the Garage Sale sign-up sheet by 8 September.

For any queries please see Alison, Ilona, Liza or Sandra.

Shenton Christian Youth Care Council...

The Shenton Christian Youth Care Council is an ecumenical branch of Youth Care W.A. The council provides support for two full-time chaplains at Shenton College and part-time chaplains in Government primary schools from Mosman Park to Shenton Park. Most churches in this area provide delegates to the Shenton Christian Youth Care Council which meets quarterly. The chaplains are financed by Federal, State and Local Governments, the respective churches, individual donations and fundraising activities. Any parishioner who would be interested to be our church delegate to keep us informed about the activities of the council, please see Ilona.

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah

Now the word of the Lord came to me saying,

‘Before I formed you in the womb I knew you,
and before you were born I consecrated you;
I appointed you a prophet to the nations.’

Then I said, ‘Ah, Lord God! Truly I do not know how to speak, for I am only a boy.’ 7 But the Lord said to me,

Do not say, "I am only a boy";
for you shall go to all to whom I send you,
and you shall speak whatever I command you.
Do not be afraid of them,
for I am with you to deliver you,
says the Lord.'

Then the Lord put out his hand and touched my mouth; and
the Lord said to me,

Now I have put my words in your mouth.
See, today I appoint you over nations and over kingdoms,
to pluck up and to pull down,
to destroy and to overthrow,
to build and to plant.'

Jeremiah 1:4-10

Hear the Word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 71

In you, O Lord, do I seek refuge;
let me never be put to shame.

In your righteousness, deliver me and set me free;
incline your ear to me and save me.

Be for me a stronghold to which I may ever resort;
send out to save me, for you are my rock and my fortress.

Deliver me, my God, from the hand of the wicked,
from the grasp of the evildoer and the oppressor.

For you are my hope, O Lord God,
my confidence, even from my youth.

Upon you have I leaned from my birth,
when you drew me from my mother's womb;
my praise shall be always of you.

Psalm 71:1-6

A Reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

You have not come to something that can be touched, a blazing fire, and darkness, and gloom, and a tempest, and the sound of a trumpet, and a voice whose words made the hearers beg that not another word be spoken to them. (For they could not endure the order that was given, ‘If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned to death.’ Indeed, so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, ‘I tremble with fear.’) But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering, and to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

See that you do not refuse the one who is speaking; for if they did not escape when they refused the one who warned them on earth, how much less will we escape if we reject the one who warns from heaven! At that time his voice shook the earth; but now he has promised, ‘Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heaven.’ This phrase ‘Yet once more’ indicates the removal of what is shaken—that is, created things—so that what cannot be shaken may remain. Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us give thanks, by which we offer to God an acceptable worship with reverence and awe; for indeed our God is a consuming fire.

Hebrews 12:18-29

Hear the Word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ According to Luke

Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, 'Woman, you are set free from your ailment.' When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, 'There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day.' But the Lord answered him and said, 'You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?' When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

Luke 13:10-17

The Gospel of the Lord: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

For your contemplation before or after Holy Communion...

Grant, we beseech you O Lord, that we who in these outward tokens have been made partakers of your most precious body and blood, may after this life be replenished with the sight of the fullness of your Godhead; who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

Amen.
