For any Prayer requests, please contact Eileen on P: 9381 7798 or M: 0419 538 006. Prayer chain requests are treated with full confidentiality.

Garage Sale Trail...

At this stage there will only be THREE individual stalls, so we will have a general stall as well. We are not able to sell electrical goods and will not have a book stall this year.

Any items for sale can be delivered to the Church on Friday 18 October. Due to the Hall and Meeting room being used we cannot store them before this date.

There are two lists in the Narthex. One is for volunteers to help set up on Friday 18 October from 10 a.m. and to clean up on Saturday. The second list is for volunteers to help on Saturday between 8 a.m. and 12 p.m. on the stalls. The busiest time is from 8 a.m. when we would like the most help.

For any queries please see Alison, Barbara, Ilona, Liza or Sandra.

Talking Heads 2...

Sunday 27 October, 2:30 p.m. For details about the performance, please see the flyer. There is a sign-up sheet in the Narthex.

---

Office Hours – 1 October to 14 October...

Jo is back under the knife and will be on sick leave for two weeks. Email remains the best way to reach the Office, as this will still be checked regularly.

All going well, Jo will be back to normal hours from 14 October.

Please direct all pastoral needs to Wardens Jim, Sandra or Ilona.

A Reading from the Book of Lamentations

How lonely sits the city
that once was full of people!
How like a widow she has become,
she that was great among the nations!
She that was a princess among the provinces
has become a vassal.

She weeps bitterly in the night,
with tears on her cheeks;
among all her lovers
she has no one to comfort her;
all her friends have dealt treacherously with her,
they have become her enemies.

Judah has gone into exile with suffering
and hard servitude;
she lives now among the nations,
and finds no resting-place;
her pursuers have all overtaken her
in the midst of her distress.

The roads to Zion mourn,
for no one comes to the festivals;
all her gates are desolate,
her priests groan;
her young girls grieve,
and her lot is bitter.

Her foes have become the masters,
her enemies prosper,
because the Lord has made her suffer
for the multitude of her transgressions;
her children have gone away,
captives before the foe.

From daughter Zion has departed
all her majesty.
Her princes have become like stags
that find no pasture;
they fled without strength
before the pursuer.

Lamentations 1:1-6

Hear the Word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 137

By the waters of Babylon we sat down and wept,
when we remembered Zion.

As for our lyres, we hung them up on the willows that grow in that land.

For there our captors asked for a song,
our tormentors called for mirth:
'Sing us one of the songs of Zion.'

How shall we sing the Lord's song
in a strange land?

If I forget you, O Jerusalem,
let my right hand forget its skill.

Let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth
if I do not remember you,
if I set not Jerusalem above my highest joy.

Remember, O Lord, against the people of Edom
the day of Jerusalem,
how they said, 'Down with it, down with it,
even to the ground.'

O daughter of Babylon, doomed to destruction,
happy the one who repays you
for all you have done to us;

Who takes your little ones,
and dashes them against the rock.

Psalm 137

A Reading from the Second Letter to Timothy

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, for the sake of the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus,

To Timothy, my beloved child:

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

I am grateful to God—whom I worship with a clear conscience, as my ancestors did—when I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day. Recalling your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy. I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, lives in you. For this reason I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands; for God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but rather a spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline.

Do not be ashamed, then, of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel, relying on the power of God, who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works but according to his own purpose and grace. This grace was given to us in Christ Jesus before the ages began, but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Saviour Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. For this gospel I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher, and for this reason I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know the one in whom I have put my trust, and I am sure that he is able to guard until that day what I have entrusted to him. Hold to the standard of sound teaching that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. Guard the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us.

2 Timothy 1:1-14

Hear the Word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ According to Luke

The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith!' The Lord replied, 'If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted and planted in the sea", and it would obey you.

'Who among you would say to your slave who has just come in from ploughing or tending sheep in the field, "Come here at once and take your place at the table"? Would you not rather say to him, "Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink"? Do you thank the slave for doing what was commanded? So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, "We are worthless slaves; we have done only what we ought to have done!"'

Luke 17:5-10

The Gospel of the Lord: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

For your contemplation...

Before Mass

Bless the priest who is to celebrate this mass. Bless all the people here, and all who would like to be here. Convert all the indifferent and disbelieving, heal the anguish of the world, and have mercy upon the faithful departed.

O God, accept all my prayers throughout this holy service, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen
